

CALL FOR REVIEWERS

2020-ver-01-En

1. CALL FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF SCIENTIFIC REVIEWERS

The International Committee of Reviewers of 'Comunicar' is an essential organ of the journal, who guarantees excellence in scientific publication through blind evaluations —based exclusively on content quality of the manuscripts and performed by internationally renowned experts in the area—, supporting scientific progress and ensuring a high impact production in this journal.

Currently, the Committee enjoys a section on the journal's web site (<https://bit.ly/2RTBe69>), as well as an internal management profile with customized reviewers' pages.

2. REVIEWER REQUERIMENTS

The expert must accomplish three of the following requirements in order to submit his/her proposal as a Scientific Reviewer to the International Committee of Reviewers of 'Comunicar':

- PhD category.
- Expert in the thematic focus of the journal: media education, educational technology, ICT, education-communication...
- Some or several international high impact publications (JCR-Scopus).
- Absolute H index in Google Scholar equal or higher than 5.
- Collaboration in research and development (R&D) projects, both national and international.

In case you fulfill this request, you should send a brief updated curriculum (maximum one page with the most relevant academic milestones), including the following networking and academic bases through the following form: <http://bit.ly/CallForReviewer>

- ORCID: <https://orcid.org>
- Google Scholar: <https://scholar.google.es>
- ID Scopus: <http://scopus.com>
- Academia.edu: <https://www.academia.edu>
- ResearchGate: <https://www.researchgate.net>

The Editorial Board will review the proposal and will proceed to notify the applicant.

*Reviewer's proposal does not imply, under any circumstances, the commitment to be part of the Committee, since 'Comunicar' pursues a rigorous policy of quality scientific production reviews.
